NO. OC-1, VOL. 2R

— DO NOT DESTROY —

1. Information obtained from former students at subject school who are presently employed by the Communications Division has revealed that a wealth of knowledge concerning CIA is readily available at that school. Among other things, a record is kept of all former students who have accepted employment with this Agency, and it would appear that some of the radio operators have been indiscreet concerning their present employment when they have returned to the school on social visits.

2. The essence of the information obtained from the employees who have recently entered on duty with Communications Division from [ ] Radio School was verbally presented to [ ] of I & SS. In addition, a copy of each of two circular letters originating from this school (attached) were submitted to [ ]

3. [ ] Chief of the Radio Training Section, Communications Division, had occasion to visit subject school last July and submitted a report on the information which can be obtained there concerning CIA. [ ] stated that he was not aware that his name was being used in one of the attached letters published by the school, nor does he know how the information concerning his present position was obtained. On 3 October he called [ ] President of subject school, and asked that his name not be used in any correspondence originating from the school. [ ] assured [ ] that he would mail no more of these letters; however, he stated that 800 had already been mailed.

4. The above facts are submitted for your information.
